

La existencia cristiana es subir continuamente al monte del encuentro con Dios para traer el amor y la fuerza que nos permiten servir a nuestros hermanos con el mismo amor de Dios. Todo parte del amor y tiende al amor. Conocemos el amor gratuito de Dios mediante el anuncio del Evangelio. Este primer contacto con Dios nos hace "amar el Amor", vivir y crecer en él para comunicarlo con alegría a los demás. Una fe sin obras es como un árbol sin frutos: la fe y el amor se necesitan mutuamente. La cuaresma, con sus practicas tradicionales, nos invita precisamente a alimentar la fe a traves de una escucha mas atenta y prolongada de la Palabra de Dios y la participación en los sacramentos y, al mismo tiempo, a crecer en la caridad, en el amor a Dios y al prójimo, practicando de modo especial el ayuno, la penitencia y la limosna.

The Christian life consists in continuously scaling the mountain to meet God and then coming back down, bearing the love and strength drawn from him, so as to serve our brothers and sisters with God's own love. Everything proceeds from Love and tends towards Love. God's gratuitous love is made known to us through the proclamation of the Gospel. If we welcome it with faith, we receive the first and indispensable contact with the Divine, capable of making us "fall in love with Love", and then we dwell within this Love, we grow in it and we joyfully communicate it to others. Faith without works is like a tree without fruit: the two virtues imply one another. Lent invites us, through the traditional practices of the Christian life, to nourish our faith by careful and extended listening to the word of God and by receiving the sacraments, and at the same time to grow in charity and in love for God and neighbour, not least through the specific practices of fasting, penance and almsgiving.
