GOD LOVES US FIRST

SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - FEBRUARY 15, 2026

In the Gospel of today's liturgy, Jesus says: "Think not that I have come to abolish the law and the prophets; I have come not to abolish them but to fulfil them" (Mt 5:17). To fulfil : this is a key word to understand Jesus and his message. But what does this fulfilment mean? To explain this, the Lord begins by saying what fulfilment is not. The Scripture says, "Do not kill", but for Jesus this is not enough if brothers and sisters are then hurt by words; the Scripture says, "Do not commit adultery", but this is not enough if one then lives a love tainted by duplicity and falsehood; the Scripture says, "Do not bear false witness", but it is not enough to take a solemn oath if one then acts with hypocrisy (cf. Mt 5:21-37). This is not fulfilment.

To give us a concrete example, Jesus concentrates on the "rite of the offertory". By making an offering to God, one reciprocated the gratuity of his gifts. It was a very important rite — making an offering to reciprocate symbolically, let's say, the gratuitousness of his gifts — so important that to interrupt it was forbidden other than for serious reasons. But Jesus states that it must be interrupted if a brother has something against us, in order to go and be reconciled with him first (cf. vv. 23-24): only in this way is the rite fulfilled. The message is clear: God loves us first, freely, taking the first step towards us, without us deserving it; and so we cannot celebrate his love without in turn taking the first step towards reconciliation with those who have hurt us. In this way there is fulfilment in God's eyes; otherwise, external, purely ritualistic observance is pointless, it becomes a pretence. In other words, Jesus makes us understand that religious rules are necessary, they are good, but they are only the beginning: to fulfil them, it is necessary to go beyond the letter and live their meaning. The commandments that God gave us should not be locked up in the airless vaults of formal observance; otherwise, we are limited to an exterior, detached religiosity, servants of "God the master" rather than children of "God the Father". Jesus wants this: not to have the idea of serving a God who is master, but Father; and this is why it is necessary to go beyond the letter.

Brothers and sisters, this problem was present not only in Jesus' time; it is there today too. At times, for example, we hear some say, "Father, I have not killed, I have not stolen, I have not harmed anyone...", as if to say, "I am fine". This is formal observance, which is satisfied with the bare minimum, whereas Jesus invites us to aspire to the maximum possible. That is: God does not reason with calculations and tables; he loves us as one who is enamoured: not to the minimum, but to the maximum! He does not say, "I love you up to a certain point". No, true love is never up to a certain point, and is never satisfied; love always goes beyond, it cannot do otherwise. The Lord showed us this by giving his life on the cross and forgiving his murderers (cf. Lk 23:34). And he entrusted to us the commandment most dear to him: that we love one another like he loved us (cf. Jn 15:12). This is the love that gives fulfilment to the Law, to faith, to true life!

So, brothers and sisters, we can ask ourselves: how do I live faith? Is it a matter of calculations, formalism, or a love story with God? Am I content merely with not doing harm, keeping the "façade" in good order, or do I try to grow in love for God and others? And every now and then, do I check myself on Jesus' great commandment, do I ask myself if I love my neighbour as He loves me? Because perhaps we are inflexible in judging others and forget to be merciful, as God is with us.

May Mary, who observed the Word of God perfectly, help us to give fulfilment to our faith and our charity.

SEASON OF LENT: Lent has two major purposes: 1. It recalls or prepares for baptism, and 2. emphasizes a spirit of penance. Through forty days of closer attention to God's word and of more fervent prayer, believers are prepared to celebrate the Paschal Mystery. Lenten instructions should stress these baptismal and penitential themes.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS: FRIDAY

(FEBRUARY 20TH) will be prayed at 10:30am in English and 11:30am in Spanish
each Friday during Lent, beginning this week.

EL VIACRUCIS se rezará en español los

y a las 11:30am comenzando este viernes 20 de febrero.

SOUP SOCIAL - St. John's Catholic Women's League invites you to a Soup Social taking place after the 5pm Mass on February 28 and after the 9am Mass on Sunday, March 1st in the parish hall. For a freewill offering, come and enjoy a bowl of delicious homemade soup. Proceeds will go to support Development and Peace.

St. Vincent de Paul— Thank You Note! We, the members of the Society of St Vincent de Paul, St John the Baptist Conference, are sending out a big THANK YOU to all the parishioners/visitors of St John's and Our Lady of Guadalupe for their generous support of the Christmas Angel Tree. To date we have collected $4,602. Your generosity enabled us to provide Christmas gift cards from Metro (Food Basics) to individuals and families living in the St John's neighbourhood of Kitchener. Together you shared the Christmas spirit of giving to the less fortunate among us. God bless you for helping to spread peace and joy to others during the Christmas season and your continued support during 2025. Throughout the year we continue to provide food and support to your neighbours and students at St John's elementary school. We couldn't do this without YOU.
